Overview:

How is the WBL pilot going? What are the next steps for the SRA, participating firms or the profession as a whole? What changes should firms already be thinking about to support a formal WBL environment in the future?

Following on from the initial WBL event held at Kaplan Law School last year, BPP Law School have kindly offered to host an event to talk about the next steps, and ways in which firms can obtain the maximum benefit from the likely forthcoming changes.

Speakers include Tim Pearce of the SRA, Dr Andrew Cook and Dr James Faulconbridge from the University of Lancaster presenting their research on WBL in the context of professional education and global professional service firms. All of these speakers will be sharing their perspectives on WBL and what it means to member firms.

We anticipate that this workshop will sell out quickly and are therefore limiting numbers for this workshop to three per firm, with places allocated on a first come, first served basis.

The fee for the event includes lunch. For catering purposes, please can you let us know if you would like to stay for lunch?

Please note no refunds if you cancel after booking.

*Please note that any firm members wishing to attend events that are not named as either a representative or associate member will be required to pay the non-member fee unless an event is otherwise designated.
